Forecast for Monday 10 Aug 2020

Weather: Cloud becoming overcast across the Trossachs and perhaps Ben Lomond in the early hours before burning off as the sunny skies over Argyll become more widespread. The rest of the day mainly dry, variable cloud and some sunshine at times. In the afternoon a few showers perhaps accompanied by thunder may start to affect Arran and then up into the rest of the Southwest Highlands later in the afternoon or evening but with low probability.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 80% at first rising 95% as the early cloud in the Trossachs burns off. The cloud associated with any showers will be much higher based cloud

Visibility: Generally very good but falling moderate, perhaps briefly poor in any heavier thundery showers.

Met Office Aberdeen Meteorologist's View
Humidity and UV levels mean protection against sunburn and dehydration will be required.

Forecast for Tuesday 11 Aug 2020
Weather: Some thundery showers in the early hours. The day likely to be mainly dry with sunny spells. Still a chance of the odd thundery shower in the afternoon or evening but a low risk.

Maximum wind: Southeasterly 10-15mph.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 90% or more, with any hill fog again likely in the Trossachs in the early hours

Visibility: Generally very good, perhaps some localised reductions to a few km in any heavy showers.

Temperature: Glens: Plus 15 Celsius rising to Plus 25 Celsius.
At 800m: Plus 16 Celsius
Freezing level: Above the summits
